

2nd International Conference of NextGen Korean Studies Scholars (NEKST)

May 16-17, 2014 Ann Arbor, MI

We invite graduate students within Korean Studies across the humanities and social sciences to participate in the 2nd International Conference of NextGen Korean Studies Scholars (NEKST) at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor. This annual conference aims to give graduate students in all Korea-related fields an opportunity to present their research, share academic interests, as well as build a community of future Korean studies scholars. Any methodologies and disciplinary traditions are welcome for submission, as long as the proposed paper topic is specific to Korea.

Please send a 250-word or less abstract to NEKSTconference@umich.edu by February 28, 2014 and include "NEKST Conference Abstract" in the subject of the e-mail. Please indicate your full name, institution, academic discipline, contact information (e-mail and telephone), and paper title in your email or abstract. Applicants will be contacted by the end of March regarding their abstract. If accepted, paper presentations will be 15 minutes long. Limited travel grants may be available to accepted speakers by application.

For further information, please contact NEKSTconference@umich.edu.
