

Call for papers

The Korean War & Reunification Symposium

Co-hosted by the Embassy of the Republic of Korea and the Norman Paterson School of International Affairs

Friday, November 13th, 10 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.

River Building at Carleton University

Symposium Topics

Session 1: The lessons of Korean War for multilateral intervention

Throughout history, Canada has been at the forefront of various multilateral interventions. For example, during the Korean War, Canada sent the third largest contingent of troops to Korea which is the largest in proportion to its population. What lessons did Canada learn from its participation in the Korean War?

Session 2: The impact of Korean reunification on regional security

At some point in the future, North Korea and the Republic of Korea will reunite therefore it is crucial to discuss the possible impact reunification would have on regional security.

- Write a research paper (submit 1-3 page proposal and the selected applicants will be asked to submit 20 pages long research paper) on the topic of your choice.

The deadline for submissions of 1-3 page proposals is Oct 10th, 2015; successful presenters will be contacted in due course to submit research papers of 20 pages in length by October 28th 2015.

Ground transportation and accommodation will be subsidized by the Korean Embassy for the selected candidates.

Rewards

- The opportunity for students to publicize their ideas at the Symposium and online.
- A $500 scholarship-prize will be awarded for the top essay.
- One or two presenters will have the opportunity to participate in the 2015 Youth Peace Camp in the Republic of Korea.
- All presenters will receive appreciation gifts (ex. Samsung Galaxy Tab)
