

2017 Workshop on Korean Data Services

The University of Michigan Library and Asia Library are pleased to present 2017 Workshop on Korean Data Services at the University of Michigan Library, November 15-16, 2017.

This is a two-day in-depth data services boot camp for (but not limited to) Korean studies librarians, East Asian studies librarians, and Korean studies researchers in North America. In this workshop, attendees will gain hands-on experience with Korean spatial and numeric data and GIS data, particularly those data provided by KOSSDA (Korean Social Science Data Archive) and KOSIS (Korean Statistical Information Service). Also they will learn about reliable data sources related to Korea, China, and Japan from international governmental organizations, East Asian government agencies, and commercial vendors.

- Time - November 15-16, 2017 (2 full days)
- Location - University of Michigan Library, Ann Arbor, Michigan
- Fees – None
- Registration Form by 09/30/17: <https://tinyurl.com/KoreanDataWorkshopRegistration>
- Travel Grant Form by 09/30/17: <https://tinyurl.com/KoreanDataWorkshopTravelGrants>
- Workshop Website: <http://guides.lib.umich.edu/koreadata>
- Contact information: ask-Korea@umich.edu

All participants are cordially invited to attend The 2017 Perspectives on Contemporary Korea Conference, which will be hosted by the Nam Center for Korean Studies immediately following the data workshop, on November 17-18.

2017 Workshop Committee

Dawn Lawson (Head, Asia Library)

Yunah Sung (Korean Studies Librarian)

Jungwon Yang (International Government Information and Public Policy Librarian)

This Workshop is made possible by the generous support of the Nam Center for Korean Studies, the University of Michigan Library, and the IASSIST (Social Science Information Service and Technology).