

Call for Papers

Korea and the Global Society: Engagement and Reciprocity

Korean Studies, Goethe University Frankfurt, Germany

December 4-5, 2020

Goethe University Frankfurt Korean Studies are pleased to announce the upcoming international conference titled “Korea and the Global Society: Engagement and Reciprocity” in celebration of our 10-year anniversary with generous support from AKS (Academy of Korean Studies). This conference aims to examine key aspects of Korea’s development cooperation, migration, and media within the context of the global society. We welcome abstracts related to these three overarching themes including, but not limited to, specific areas such as transnational Korean media or culture, transnational re/migration, international relations, and overseas aid including during the current Covid-19 pandemic.

Application

Please send an abstract of no more than 400 words to frankfurtkgs2020@gmail.com along with a brief biography (150 words) and your CV by August 3rd.

Successful applicants will be notified by August 28th and will be asked to submit a full paper (5,500–7,000 words total) by November 9th.

Accommodation

Accommodation for two nights near the university will be provided by the organizers.

Due to the pandemic, this conference may take place online.

Publication

Please note that only previously unpublished papers can be accepted. The organizers intend to compile a journal special issue or edited volume from the conference proceedings. The selected papers will be required to consider comments and discussion made during the conference and must be submitted by February 2021.

Team: Prof. Dr. Yonson Ahn and Mikah Lee, M.A.

For questions regarding the conference, please contact us at frankfurtkgs2020@gmail.com

