

CALL FOR PAPERS

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE
SOUTHWEST CONFERENCE ON ASIAN STUDIES

Tarleton State University
Fort Worth (Texas) Campus and Online

Oct. 22-23, 2021

Panel proposals should include the following: (1) A panel summary (250 words max.) that includes a brief description of each paper and makes clear the connection between the papers; (2) A list of participants, their paper titles, their affiliations and their contact information, including email addresses; (3) indicate mode of attendance. All participants must attend the same way.

Individual paper proposals should include the following: (1) Paper title and summary (150 words max.); (2) Presenter's name, affiliation, and contact information, including email addresses; (3) indicate in-person or online attendance. There is an award for best graduate student paper.

This year's theme is: "SWCAS at 50: Asia Through the Years." We are especially interested in topics that cover aspects of Asia during the past 50 years as we celebrate the SWCAS 50th anniversary, but proposals on any topic related to Asian studies are welcome.

Please send proposals to Marcy Tanter, tanter@tarleton.edu.
Proposals are due by April 30.

We welcome scholars and graduate students from any discipline to submit proposals for individual papers or panels on any topic related to Asian studies.

We are currently planning to host in-person and online sessions. Please be advised that the in-person sessions may be forced online for health and safety reasons.

In-person pre-registration of $75.00 for faculty ($70 after Sept. 15) or $20.00 for students ($30 after Sept. 15) reception on Friday evening and lunch on Saturday. Travel stipends up to $100 will be available for graduate students presenting papers at the conference.

Pre-registration for online: $20 faculty and $10 for all students. ($30 for faculty, $15 for students after Sep. 15)

Hotel and conference information, program and guides to Fort Worth activities will be posted on the SWCAS website as they become available over the summer/early fall months.
