

2024 IKSU Annual International Conference Call for Papers

Exploring Dynamics: Korean Anthropology and Sociology in a Global Context

University of Central Lancashire, UK, 19-20 April 2024

The International Institute of Korean Studies (IKSU) is inviting scholars whose research focuses on the issues related to Korea, based on anthropology and/or sociology disciplinary approaches. After the conference, an edited volume will be published, and a special issue journal may also follow, depending on the number of participants. Not only established academics at different stages but also early career scholars—including postdoctoral researchers—and PhD candidates in relevant fields are encouraged to submit.

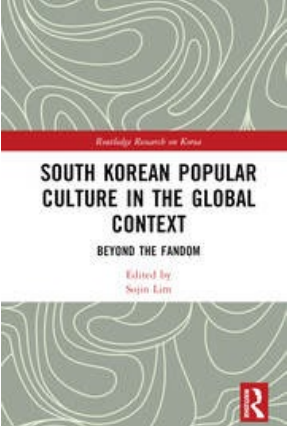

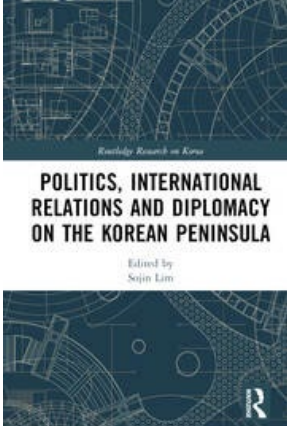

Schedule for Submission

- Proposal Submission Deadline (maximum 500 words of abstract): 15 December 2023
- Acceptance Notice: 15 January 2024
- IKSU Annual International Conference: 19-20 April 2024
- Full Paper Submission for Publication Deadline: 15 May 2024
- Submission to: IKSU-AKS@uclan.ac.uk.

Financial Support for Presenters

Travel costs will be reimbursed up to a maximum of GBP 150 for participants within the UK, GBP 400 for participants from EU countries, and GBP 800 for participants from the rest of the world (economy seats only). Up to three nights of accommodation will be covered by the host, depending on the participant's flight schedule. We expect presenters to also participate as discussants at the conference. Only those who submitted the full paper by the publication deadline (15 May 2024) will be reimbursed for their travel expenses.

Edited Volumes from Previous Conferences

From 2021 Conference		From 2022 Conference
-------------------------	---	-------------------------	---

[From 2023 Conference] Publication in progress about Korean Economic Development and International Aid