Young Korean scholars about Korea: a new look at the land of morning calm

International MA & BA student's conference
Higher School of Economics, Moscow, Russia
June 22, 2024

With Korean culture rising in global popularity Korean studies are claiming an important place in educational programs of higher educational institutions as well. However, specializing in various fields, students of Korean studies are often limited in the opportunity to demonstrate the results of their research, share and exchange experiences with colleagues from other universities and countries. Aiming to fill this gap our conference is set on purpose to provide a platform for international and interuniversity academic exchanges of students majoring in Korean studies.

We are welcoming bachelor and master degree students to present their findings in various fields of Korean studies including, but not limited to, history, culture, economics, politics, and etc.

To apply for the conference, please submit your full name, affiliation, academic degree, research major and contact details, as well as an abstract describing the relevance of the research conducted (1200-1600 symbols) and 5-6 keywords to the following application form:
