

DEMOCRACY AND SECURITY DYNAMICS ON THE KOREAN PENINSULA AND EAST ASIA

WHERE:

Dipartimento di Studi Orientali (ISO), Sapienza,
Circonvallazione Tiburtina 4
Aula Sala Riunioni 1 (3rd floor)

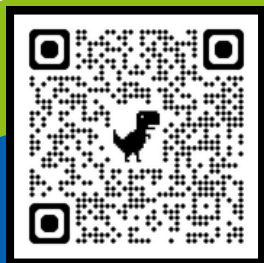

WHEN:

September 3, 2025
2 PM - 8 PM

Scientific committee
Kyung Mi Kim

Organizing Committee
Kyung Mi Kim
Irene Chianese
Giulia Silvestri and Clarissa Mioli

Link: <https://meet.google.com/ewi-qotb-ezj>

PROGRAM:

PARTICIPANTS:

Kyung-hoon Leem

Seoul National University

Kwang-il Yoon

Sookmyung Womens' University

Soon-Ok Shin

European University Institute

Sangsin Lee

Korea Institute for Korean Unification

Tae-eun Min

Korea Institute for Korean Unification

Irene Chianese

Sapienza University of Rome

Kyung Mi Kim

Sapienza University of Rome

Bongki Lee

Korea Institute for National Unification

Chulki Hong

Korea Institute for National Unification

Jeongeun Ahn

Korea Institute for National Unification

This seminar explores key political and geopolitical challenges in contemporary Korea from both domestic and international perspectives. The first session focuses on democratic resilience and institutional responses to political polarization in South Korea, placing it within a broader comparative framework that includes East Asia, Europe, and the U.S. The second session addresses the shifting geopolitical landscape in East Asia, with a focus on inter-Korean relations and the impact of U.S.-China tensions on regional dynamics.

Scientific committee

Kyung Mi Kim

Organizing Committee

Kyung Mi Kim

Irene Chianese

Giulia Silvestri and Clarissa Mioli

SCHEDULE:

14.00

Opening and greeting

14.10

Session 1: Resilience and Institutional Responses in Political Crises from a Comparative Perspective

Moderator: Kyung Mi Kim (Sapienza University of Rome)

14.15

Kyung-hoon Leem (Seoul National University):

"Decay of South Korean Democracy"

14.45

Kwang-il Yoon (Sookmyung Womens' University):

"The Resilience of South Korean Democracy"

15.15

Soon-Ok Shin (European University Institute):

"The logic of selective anger: right-wing populism with South Korean characteristics?"

15.45

Discussion and Q&A

Discussant: Chulki Hong (Korea Institute for National Unification)

16.30-16.55 Coffee break

16.55

Session 2: Two Koreas and East Asia in a Changing Geopolitical Landscape

Moderator: Bongki Lee (Korea Institute for National Unification)

17.00

Sangsin Lee (Korea Institute for Korean Unification):

"The New South Korean Government's Unification and North Korea Policy"

17.30

Tae-eun Min (Korea Institute for Korean Unification):

"Changes and Prospects in U.S.-South Korea Relations"

18.00

Irene Chianese (Sapienza University of Rome):

"China and North Korea: Managing a Fragile Friendship Under Global Scrutiny"

18.30

Discussion and Q&A

Discussant: Jeongeun Ahn (Korea Institute for National Unification)